

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

I. The Scope of the General Terms and Conditions, Interpretive Provisions

- 1.) The material scope of the present General Terms and Conditions (hereinafter: GTC) shall extend to the Subsidy Contract announced by Eötvös Loránd University (hereinafter: Grantor) signed with the private individual (hereinafter: Recipient) awarded the subsidy in the call for applications launched by the Talent Management Fund, while the personal scope of the GTC shall extend to the Grantor and the Recipient (hereinafter: Parties).
- 2.) The material scope of the present GTC shall extend to the support of the active participation of the students of the Grantor in domestic and international online or in-person academic competitions, conferences and workshops, and the support of the participation in domestic/international educational and research events and events aiding teaching and research by the instructors/researchers of the Grantor based on their applications submitted in the call for applications launched by the Talent Management Fund. The subsidies awarded shall be the following:
 - a.) in the case of students: a scholarship
 - b.) in the case of instructors/researchers: other allowance
- 3.) The Grantor shall ensure, pursuant to Act V of 2013 Article 6:78 (1), that the Recipient is informed of the contents of the GTC prior to signing the contract. The GTC shall be considered as part of the terms and conditions which the Recipient shall accept by signing the Subsidy Contract.
- 4.) The details of the Grantor and the Recipient (hereinafter jointly referred to as Parties) for the purposes of the present GTC are contained in Subsidy Contract available via the Márton Áron Application Portal.

II. The Purpose of the Subsidy; The Subject of the Agreement

- 1.) The Subsidy Contract, the call for applications published by the Grantor on the website of ELTE Talent Support (<https://www.elte.hu/tehetseggondozas>) which is legally binding for the Parties and the application submitted electronically by the Recipient via the Márton Áron Application Portal shall form an integral part of the GTC.

III. Recipient's Obligations

- 1.) Trip report: The Recipient, in connection with their participation in the event referred to in the application, shall undertake to compile a report on their results in PDF format within 15 days following the last day of the event, which they shall submit to the Talent Support Council via e-mail: tehetseggondozasitanacs@elte.hu. The trip report shall contain a personal written professional report at a length of 2,000-4,000 characters (to which the recipient may attach photos or a short video) as well as an official document issued by the event's organisers or the recipient's topic supervisor verifying their participation in the event. Should the Recipient fail to submit the trip report by the specified deadline or if the one they submit is incomplete or inadequate, and the Recipient fails to correct the report by the specified deadline, the Grantor shall reserve the right to terminate the Subsidy Contract with immediate effect without required justification.

The trip reports shall be assessed by a committee comprising members of the Talent Support Council.

- 2.) The Recipient shall undertake to note either on their poster or in their presentation that "The conference participation was subsidised by the Talent Support Council of ELTE Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest"
- 3.) The Subsidy Contract and the provisions laid out in the GTC require that the Recipient immediately report any changes in their personal, academic or contact details and information to the Grantor.
- 4.) By signing the Subsidy Contract, the Recipient declares that they meet all of the conditions laid out in the call for applications.
- 5.) The Recipient acknowledges that the subsidy and related entitlements based on the Subsidy Contract and the GTC shall only be valid for the duration of the event in question.
- 6.) The Recipient shall be required to immediately notify the contact listed in the Subsidy Contract in the event that they are unable or do not wish to attend the event referred to in the Subsidy Contract for any given reason. In the event that for any given reason the Recipient is unable or does not wish to avail of the subsidy granted to them, they shall be required to notify the contact listed in the contract of their decision to waive the subsidy in writing by no later than the start date of the event in question.
- 7.) The Recipient instructors/researchers acknowledges that the subsidy shall be disbursed ex-post.
- 8.) The Recipient acknowledges that the primary communication channel with the Recipient is the e-mail address provided in the application.

IV. Termination of the Subsidy Contract, Repayment Obligation

- 1.) The Subsidy Contract shall be terminated in the cases of the provisions laid out in points III. 1.) and III. 6.) of the GTC and the Recipient shall be obligated to repay the subsidy.
 - a.) In the event that the Grantor terminates the Subsidy Contract on the basis of point III. 1.) of the GTC, the Recipient shall be obligated to repay the full subsidy to the Grantor upon receipt of an official notification of the termination in line with the rules on erroneous payments based on Section 98 paragraphs (1) and (4) of the Academic Regulations for Students comprising Volume 2 of the Organisational and Operational Regulations of Eötvös Loránd University (hereinafter: HKR).
 - b.) In the event that the Recipient decides to waive the subsidy based on point III. 6.) of the GTC, the Subsidy Contract shall expire on the day the subsidy is waived. In this case, the Recipient shall be obligated to repay the full subsidy to the Grantor in line with rules on erroneous payments based on Section 98 paragraphs (1) and (4) of the HKR.
- 2.) The Recipient shall be required to repay the subsidy by complying with a payment obligation issued via the NEPTUN Electronic Registration System. Should the student fail to meet their payment obligation by the specified deadline, then, in line with the procedures and legal consequences laid out in Section 131 (7) of the HKR, the student shall not be eligible to register for or take the end-term exams, shall not register for the next semester and shall not take the final exam. A student who fails to repay a subsidy shall be ineligible for any further travel subsidies.

- 3.) In the case of instructors/researchers, expenses listed on application forms shall not be settled in the event of a failure to comply with the obligation referred to in point III. 1.) of the GTC.
- 4.) The Grantor – in the absence of a different decision by the Talent Management Council as the grantor of the subsidy – may terminate the Subsidy Contract with immediate effect or may cancel the agreement in the event that the Recipient, for reasons attributable to the Recipient, violates their obligations stemming from the GTC or the relevant laws, in particular if the Recipient fails to meet the obligation laid out in the GTC to submit their personal and academic information or any changes to them, fails to respond to the Grantor's data request by the specified deadline or if it can be credibly proven that the Recipient, when submitting the application, deliberately provided false details or statements that affected its assessment.

V. Other Provisions

- 1) By signing the Subsidy Contract, the Recipient confirms their agreement with the following:
 - that their name and the details of the subsidy (the details of the event, the sum awarded, their presentation at the event, the title of the presented poster, the result achieved in a competition) as well as their trip report, photos and videos may be made public. In addition, the Recipient agrees to allow
 - the Grantor to manage their personal details for the duration and to the extent needed for the implementation of the subsidy relationship taking into consideration the provisions laid out in Act CXII of 2011 on the Right of Informational Self-Determination and on Freedom of Information as well as Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council.
- 2) The Parties shall be liable for the validity of the information submitted by them. The Parties shall be obligated to present their information in writing within the framework of the Subsidy Contract.
- 3) All matters not regulated by the GTC or the Subsidy Contract shall be governed by the rules of Hungarian law, in particular Act V of 2013 on the Civil Code, Act CCIV of 2011 on National Higher Education and its provisions of implementation.
- 4) The Parties have read the Subsidy Contract and the GTC, understood their contents, and as it is in full accordance with their contractual will, duly sign the Subsidy Contract as a sign of their approval.
- 5) The Subsidy Contract is made and signed in electronic form.
