CLIMATE

Hungary has a typical continental climate with hot, dry summers and mildly cold snowy winters. There are four seasons in Hungary. The average annual temperature is 9.7 °C (49.5 °F). The average high temperature in the summer is 26 to 32 °C (78 to 89 °F) and temperature can climb up to 38 °C on the hottest days in July-August. The average low temperature in the winter is −7 to −3 °C (19 to 27 °F) and temperatures might drop below 10 °C on the coldest days. Generally, the weather is warmest from May to September.

GEOGRAPHY

Hungary is situated in the Carpathian Basin. The country's major river is the Danube, dividing the country almost in half. Its two longest rivers are called Danube and Tisza. Two-thirds of Hungary's geographic area are less than 200 meters above sea level. Hungary's highest point is the mountain Kékes (1015m) located in the Mátra mountain range. The lowest point, 77m above sea level lies near Szeged. Lake Balaton is the largest lake in Central Europe, sometimes referred to as the 'Hungarian Sea'. It is 78 km long and between 3-14 km wide. It's one of the biggest tourist attractions of the country, and lots of the Hungarians spend the summer holiday by the lake.

Hungarian History at a glance

450 BC–430 AD Roman and Celtic periods

9th century Prince Árpád led the Magyar tribes to the Carpathian Basin

1000 AD The Hungarian state was founded by King Stephen I

13th century The medieval Hungarian Kingdom suffered great losses as a result of the Mongol invasion

16–17th century Roughly 150 years of partial Ottoman occupation

1867 A compromise with the Habsburgs was concluded, establishing the Austro-Hungarian Empire

1914–1918 By the end of the World War I, Hungary lost 2/3 of its territory (Treaty of Trianon)

1941–1945 During World War II, Hungary suffered enormous damages as a result of the war. Hungary was occupied by the Soviet Union

1956 Revolution against the Soviet occupation

1989 Hungary became an independent state as a Republic

2004 Hungary joined the European Union

HUNGARIAN CUISINE

Hungarian food is often spicy. It frequently uses paprika (and paprika powder, hot or 'sweet'), black pepper and onions. Potatoes are also commonly used in many dishes. Hungarians are passionate about their soups, desserts and stuffed pancakes. Dishes you must taste while staying in Hungary:

Fish Soup – is made of fish and paprika

Goulash Soup – is a soup of meat and vegetables, seasoned with paprika and other spices

Pörkölt – is delicious, juicy meat dish, prepared of beef/pork, chopped onion, paprika, other spices, you can eat it either with boiled potato or noodles

Stuffed cabbage – cabbage leaves stuffed with rice and ground pork with a tangy and spicy tomato

Chimney Cake („kürtös kalács") – popular Hungarian sweet street snack

Lángos – deep-fried flat bread, eaten with garlic sauce, cheese, sour cream

Túró Rudi – chocolated curd cheese

Dobos Cake – made with thin layers of sponge cake, bittersweet chocolate buttercream, and a brittle caramel top layer

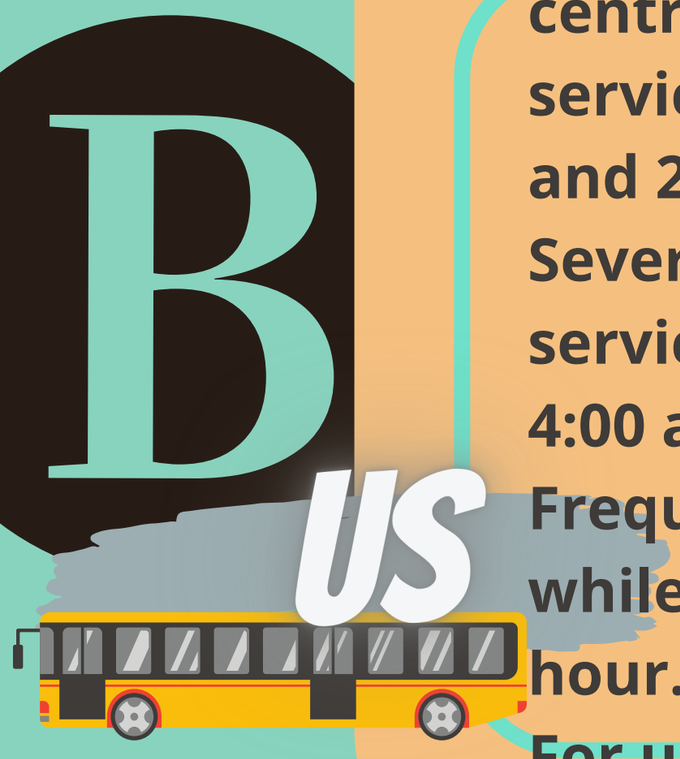

Beigli – Walnut/poppy seed roll, traditional Christmas cake

Pálinka – special fruit brandy.

What did we learn from our grandmothers? Have a headache? Drink pálinka. Feeling nervous? Drink pálinka.

PROGRAMME HIGHLIGHTS

DANUBE BOAT TOUR

Experience Budapest from a completely different perspective with a relaxing boat cruise along the Danube. As the city unfolds along both banks of the river, participants can enjoy spectacular views of Budapest's most iconic landmarks and discover the unique atmosphere of the Hungarian capital from the water.

The cruise offers the perfect opportunity to admire the Hungarian Parliament, Buda Castle, Fisherman's Bastion, the Chain Bridge, and the city's historic waterfront while enjoying a pleasant journey along the Danube. The changing scenery provides a wonderful introduction to Budapest, highlighting the contrast between the historic Buda side and the lively Pest side.

Whether enjoying the panoramic views, taking photographs, or simply relaxing on board, the Danube cruise offers a memorable way to experience the city. It is a great opportunity to see some of Budapest's most famous sights from a new angle and enjoy the beauty of the capital along one of Europe's most iconic rivers.

Public Transport

FROM THE AIRPORT

Budapest Airport is situated some 20 km to the south-east from the city centre. How to reach the city centre from Budapest International Airport? For up-to-date schedules and ticket information, please visit: https://bkk.hu/en/travel-information/airport-express/provides a direct connection between Budapest Airport and the city centre, stopping at Kálvin tér, Astoria and Deák Ferenc tér. The service operates 24/7, with buses running every 5–20 minutes depending on the time of day.

BUS 100E

Please note that a special Airport Shuttle Bus Single Ticket is required. Standard public transport tickets and most travel passes are not valid on bus 100E.

The regular Airport Shuttle ticket costs HUF 2,500.

Tickets can be purchased: • in the BudapestGO app,

• at ticket vending machines at the airport,

• at BKK customer service points,

• or directly on board using a bank card through the Budapest Pay&GO system.

BUS 200E

connects Budapest Airport with Kőbánya-Kispest, the southern terminus of Metro Line M3. From Kőbánya-Kispest, passengers can take the M3 metro towards Újpest-központ to reach the city centre.

Bus 200E operates 24/7. During the night, passengers may need to transfer to night services at certain times.

A standard public transport ticket or valid travel pass can be used on bus 200E and the metro. A single ticket costs HUF 500 if purchased in advance through the BudapestGO app, ticket vending machines, customer service centres, or other official sales points. Tickets purchased from the bus driver cost HUF 700 and can only be bought with cash.

For route planning, real-time public transport information and mobile ticket purchases, use the BudapestGO application:

OTHER LIBRARIES IN BUDAPEST

WORTH TO VISIT

National Széchenyi Library – www.oszk.hu/en

It's located in the rear wing of the Royal Palace, facing toward Buda. It's a national library, the biggest collection including some surviving books of King Mathias, the legendary king of the Renaissance (their name is "Corvina", as the ensign of the king was the raven (called corvus in Latin)).

Library of the Parliament – www.ogyk.hu/en

The house of the Hungarian Parliament established the library at the end of the 1860's. In 1902, the library moved to the newly built Parliament on the bank of Danube. It only became a public collection in 1952; until that time, access was permitted only to institutions and professionals.

Library and Information Centre of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences – konyvtar.mta.hu/index_en.php

It's a special national research library. Since its foundation in 1826, it has dedicated itself to supporting scientific and scholarly research and safeguarding its precious collections.

Metropolitan Ervin Szabó Library – https://fszek.hu/en

It's located in a magnificent neo-Baroque palace completed in 1889, as well as in a new wing – presently one of the most interesting library interiors of Europe. The café is found in the former stables.

National Library of Foreign Language – https://www.oik.hu/rolunk

Originally built for Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), a Russian language library was opened in 1956 under the name of "Gorky Library", which later started to collect other foreign language pieces, as well. Many people in Budapest call it "Gorky" even today. It has a very pleasant atmosphere with a rich selection of journals.

Central European University Library – https://library.ceu.edu/

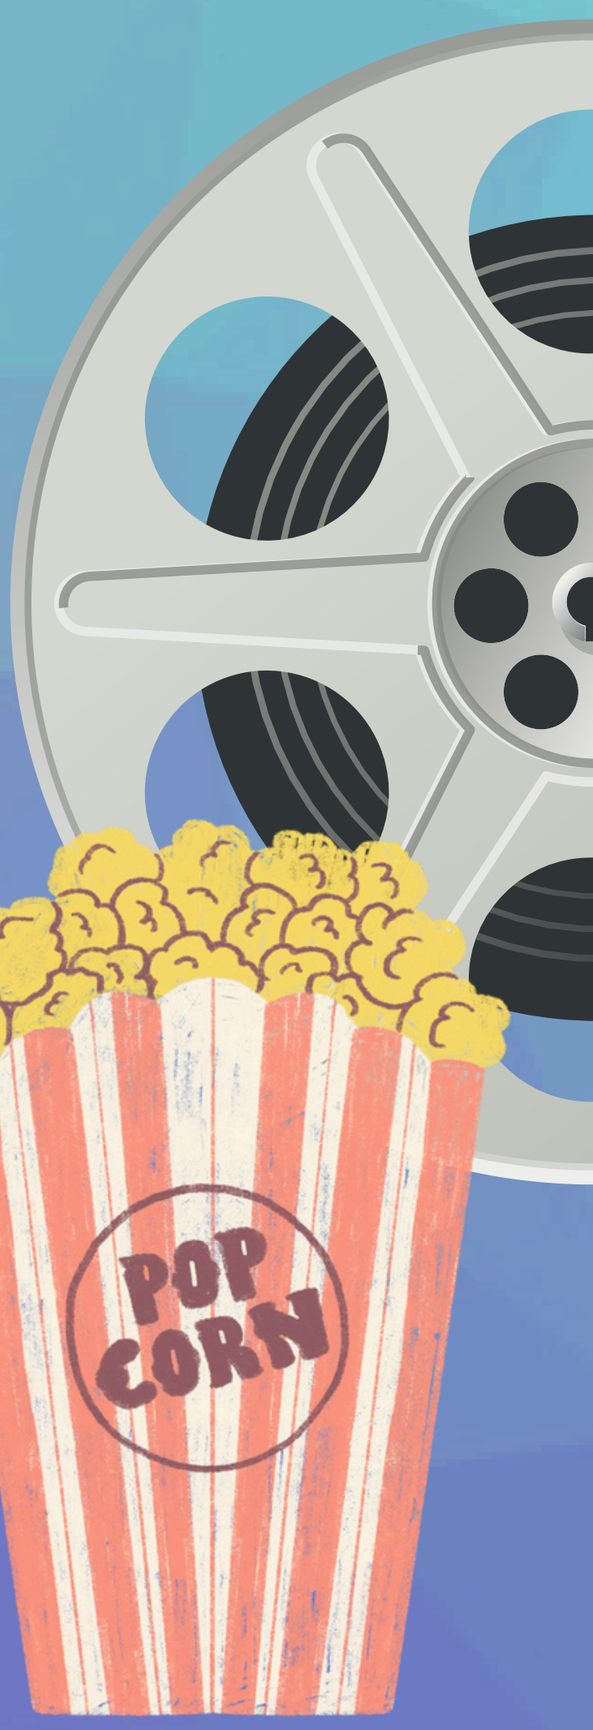

Founded by George Soros in June 1992, the CEU Library is located in the heart of downtown Budapest and holds the largest collection of English-language materials in the social sciences and humanities in Central and Eastern Europe.

If you want to watch the most wanted Hollywood movie, visit one of the cinemas of the “Cinema City” chain – www.cinemacity.hu/#/
There is a Cinema City in almost every main shopping center.

SZENTENDRE – A CHARMING ARTISTIC TOWN NEAR BUDAPEST

Located just 40 minutes from Budapest, Szentendre is one of Hungary's most picturesque towns. Known for its colorful streets, Mediterranean atmosphere, art galleries, museums, and cozy cafés, it is a perfect destination for a half-day or full-day trip. The town's historic center is full of narrow cobblestone streets, baroque architecture, and unique local shops. Thanks to its location on the Danube River, visitors can also enjoy beautiful riverside walks and stunning views.

Rab Ráby Restaurant is one of Szentendre’s most unique dining experiences, where history and Hungarian hospitality come together. Founded in 1982 and housed in a former blacksmith’s workshop, the restaurant is filled with antiques and museum-quality treasures, creating the atmosphere of a living museum. Named after the hero of Mór Jókai’s famous novel Rab Ráby, it offers traditional Hungarian flavors in the heart of Szentendre’s charming old town

DISCOVER THE HIDDEN KOLODKO MINI STATUES

While exploring Budapest and Szentendre, keep an eye out for the famous miniature sculptures created by Hungarian artist Mihály Kolodko. These tiny bronze statues are hidden throughout the city, often referencing Hungarian history, popular culture, cartoons, or international icons. Finding them has become a popular treasure hunt among both locals and tourists.

VÁC – A CHARMING RIVERSIDE TOWN NEAR BUDAPEST

Escape the busy streets of Budapest and discover Vác, a charming historic town beautifully situated along the Danube. Just a short journey from the capital, Vác offers a peaceful and picturesque setting, with colourful historic buildings, charming streets, elegant squares, and beautiful riverside views. The town is known for its rich cultural heritage and relaxed atmosphere, making it a wonderful place to experience a different side of Hungary.

Participants can explore the historic town centre, admire its architecture and landmarks, and enjoy a leisurely walk along the Danube. There will also be time to discover the local cafés, small shops, and cosy streets at your own pace. With its combination of history, culture, and riverside scenery, Vác offers a pleasant and memorable escape from the city.

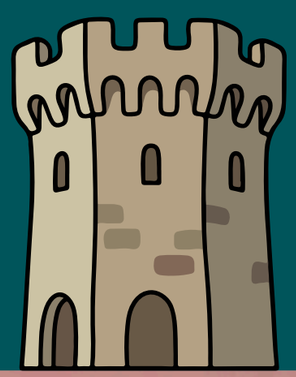

PROGRAMME HIGHLIGHTS

VISEGRÁD – A JOURNEY INTO MEDIEVAL HUNGARY

Step back in time and discover the fascinating medieval heritage of Visegrád, one of the most beautiful destinations along the Danube Bend. Surrounded by hills and spectacular riverside scenery, Visegrád offers a unique combination of Hungarian history, culture, and traditional atmosphere. During the visit, participants will explore the Royal Palace of Visegrád, once an important royal residence and a fascinating reminder of Hungary's medieval past. The programme also includes entry to the Visegrád Palace Games Craft Market, where visitors can discover traditional crafts, handmade products, and the atmosphere of the famous medieval festival. The excursion continues with a visit to Solomon Tower, one of Visegrád's best-known historic landmarks, offering an insight into the town's medieval heritage. With its historic sites, traditional crafts, beautiful surroundings, and unique atmosphere, Visegrád offers an exciting opportunity to experience a different side of Hungary beyond Budapest.
