

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Additional financial support for students with fewer opportunities participating in mobility abroad in the Erasmus+ programme

2024/2025 academic year

Eötvös Loránd University is launching a call for applications for additional financial support for higher education students with fewer opportunities who have been awarded an Erasmus+ study, traineeship, or short-term mobility grant in the 2024/2025 academic year.

The aim of the additional financial support for students with fewer opportunities is to provide equal opportunities for outgoing students facing health, cultural, social, economic or geographical barriers to participate in Erasmus+ higher education mobility.

Students with fewer opportunities may apply for additional financial support with the required supporting documents based on the criteria below. (The criteria are not listed in order of importance.)

1. Participants with health conditions (outgoing participants who are disabled or chronically ill)
 - a. Additional support may be requested for disabled or chronically ill outgoing students and staff in accordance with the relevant call for applications: Additional financial support for students and staff with disabilities or long-term illnesses participating in the Erasmus+ program. If you do not apply for an additional financial support grant on the basis of any other criterion, you do not need to submit an itemised application or a statement of account for a grant claim of less than EUR 250 per month.
2. Difficulties related to education and training systems
 - a. Students attending a part-time course. [Document to be submitted: copy of any official institutional document confirming the course of study.]

Who can apply?

Students attending a higher education institution in Hungary who are applying for or have already been awarded an Erasmus+ mobility programme place for the academic year 2024/2025 for study, traineeship, or short-term mobility. Additional support is not available for mobility already completed at the time of application.

- To be eligible for additional support, students must have successfully applied for and been awarded an Erasmus+ mobility grant. Zero grant status (where the student extends the Erasmus+ status at their own expense but does not receive a grant for the duration of the extension) is not eligible for additional support!
- It is necessary to apply for additional support separately for each Erasmus+ mobility application.
- The approved duration of the additional support will be matched to the duration of the corresponding approved mobility.
- The grant is conditional upon the submission of documentation by the deadline (see deadline for application).
- Please note that applications for additional support cannot be submitted retrospectively for mobilities already started at the time of application.

The amount of additional financial support

For study mobility and traineeship mobility, 250 EUR per month.

For short-term student mobility, a one-off grant of 100 EUR (for mobility of 1-14 days) or 150 EUR (for mobility of 15-30 days) on top of the Erasmus+ basic grant awarded. The sending higher education institution will transfer the additional support together with the basic grant.

How to apply

Applications should be submitted electronically, as detailed on our website.
