Faculty of Humanities
Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE)
Budapest, Hungary

Language of instruction:

English

Duration:

3 years

Program starts:

in February and in September

Accreditation number:

FF/24271/2014

ECTS credits:

180

Limit:

2-100 students

The program is offered at the School of English and American Studies. The program may be completed as a major program or as a minor program, the latter is only available for students who are in another major program at ELTE. Students taking the program as a major opt for either the English or the American track at the end of the first term. The three-year long program does not provide teaching qualifications.

Students in the English studies track within the English and American Studies BA program are offered a chance to acquaint themselves with the foundations of information technology and typography in the first phase of their studies. This is followed by a series of seminars and lectures aimed at developing students' competence in using English as a language of global communication, academic writing, and everyday oral argumentation in a scholarly and business environment. Students will thus attain the foundations of academic research, evaluation and critical thinking in English literature, British and American socio-political history, and develop an understanding of the linguistic levels of description and analysis of English (phonology and syntax).

Students opting for the American Studies track within the English and American Studies BA program are given the opportunity to acquaint themselves with the background and idiosyncratic features of American history, culture, literature, and the American variety of English. By focusing on these areas of research, the aim of the American Studies track is to impart the students with the foundations of critical thinking and academic research in order to prepare them for future studies or for successful endeavours when entering the job market.

Career prospects:

Those holding a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and American Studies are eligible for admission to the English Studies MA, American Studies MA, or similar philological degrees. They will be able to work in different fields, such as journalism, tourism, education, government organizations, and diplomacy.

Job examples:

journalist, English teacher, officer at governmental and non-governmental organizations, specialist in diplomatic affairs
