YOUR PERSONAL
GUIDE TO ENJOY YOUR STAY

Dear Summer University Student!
We would like to welcome you in your Hungarian adventure. Studying abroad is challenging, interesting, inspiring and it gives you an experience you will never forget.

Eötvös Loránd University (ELTE) is Hungary's most prestigious university with the richest traditions and the highest international rankings in the country.
Students at ELTE coming from more than 100 different countries turn the university into a multicultural and diverse environment.
Internationalization as an inherent part of the institutional strategy of ELTE underlies all our efforts in the development of education, research, and the institution itself. You as an international student play an essential role in the international developments in education.

OTHER LIBRARIES IN BUDAPEST

WORTH TO VISIT

National Széchenyi Library – www.oszk.hu

It's located in the rear wing of the Royal Palace, facing toward Buda. It's a national library, the biggest collection including some surviving books of King Mathias, the legendary king of the Renaissance (their name is "Corvina", as the ensign of the king was the raven (called corvus in Latin)).

Library of the Parliament – www.ogyk.hu

The house of the Hungarian Parliament established the library at the end of the 1860's. In 1902, the library moved to the newly built Parliament on the bank of Danube. It only became a public collection in 1952; until that time, access was permitted only to institutions and professionals.

Library and Information Centre of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences – https://konyvtar.mta.hu/index_en.php

It's a special national research library. Since its foundation in 1826, it has dedicated itself to supporting scientific and scholarly research and safeguarding its precious collections.

Metropolitan Ervin Szabó Library – www.fszek.hu

It's located in a magnificent neo-Baroque palace completed in 1889, as well as in a new wing – presently one of the most interesting library interiors of Europe. The café is found in the former stables.

National Library of Foreign Language – www.oik.hu

Originally built for Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), a Russian language library was opened in 1956 under the name of "Gorky Library", which later started to collect other foreign language pieces, as well. Many people in Budapest call it "Gorky" even today. It has a very pleasant atmosphere with a rich selection of journals.

Central European University Library – <https://library.ceu.edu/>

Founded by George Soros in June 1992, the CEU Library is located in the heart of downtown Budapest and holds the largest collection of English-language materials in the social sciences and humanities in Central and Eastern Europe.

HUNGARIAN LANGUAGE COURSES

General Hungarian Language Courses – Eötvös Loránd University offers Hungarian language and culture courses covering all levels from complete beginner (A1) to proficiency levels (C2).

The 10-11-week courses start at the beginning of both spring and autumn semesters. Students get 3 or 6 ECTS credits after successfully completing the course.

ERASMUS STUDENT NETWORK

Besides representing the rights of students having a scholarship at our university, our primary aim is to help incoming students by offering aid in academic, social and practical integration. This is mainly provided through cultural and social activities, such as trips to various places within the country, film events, language projects, international food festivals, sports events as well as parties.

STIPENDIUM HUNGARICUM

Stipendium Hungaricum is a scholarship programme for foreign students, founded by the Hungarian Government in 2013. The programme aims to promote cultural understanding, economic and cultural relations between Hungary and other countries. The Department of Erasmus+ and International Programmes is responsible for the implementation of the programme at ELTE.

CLIMATE

Hungary has a typical continental climate with hot, dry summers and mildly cold snowy winters. There are four seasons in Hungary. The average annual temperature is 9.7 °C (49.5 °F). The average high temperature in the summer is 26 to 32 °C (78 to 89 °F) and temperature can climb up to 38 °C on the hottest days in July-August. The average low temperatures might drop below 10 °C on the coldest days. Generally, the weather is warmest from May to September.

GEOGRAPHY

Hungary is situated in the Carpathian Basin. The country's major river is the Danube, dividing the country almost in half. Its two longest rivers are called Danube and Tisza. Two-thirds of Hungary's geographic area are less than 200 meters above sea level. Hungary's highest point is the mountain Kékes (1015m) located in the Mátra mountain range. The lowest point, 77m above sea level lies near Szeged. Lake Balaton is the largest lake in Central Europe, sometimes referred to as the 'Hungarian Sea'. It is 78 km long and between 3-14 km wide. It's one of the biggest tourist attractions of the country, and lots of the Hungarians spend the summer holiday by the lake.

Hungarian History at a glance

450 BC-430 AD Roman and Celtic periods

9th century Prince Árpád led the Magyar tribes to the Carpathian Basin

1000 AD The Hungarian state was founded by King Stephen I

13th century The medieval Hungarian Kingdom suffered great losses as a result of the Mongol invasion

16-17th century Roughly 150 years of partial Ottoman occupation

1867 A compromise with the Habsburgs was concluded, establishing the Austro-Hungarian Empire

1914-1918 By the end of the World War I, Hungary lost 2/3 of its territory (Treaty of Trianon)

1941-1945 During World War II, Hungary suffered enormous damages as a result of the war.

Hungary was occupied by the Soviet Union

1956 Revolution against the Soviet occupation

1989 Hungary became an independent state as a Republic

2004 Hungary joined the European Union

HUNGARIAN CUISINE

Hungarian food is often spicy. It frequently uses paprika (and paprika powder, hot or 'sweet'), black pepper and onions. Potatoes are also commonly used in many dishes. Hungarians are passionate about their soups, desserts and stuffed pancakes. Dishes you must taste while staying in Hungary:

Fish Soup – is made of fish and paprika

Goulash Soup – is a soup of meat and vegetables, seasoned with paprika and other spices

Pörkölt – is delicious, juicy meat dish, prepared of beef/pork, chopped onion, paprika, other spices, you can eat it either with boiled potato or noodles

Stuffed cabbage – cabbage leaves stuffed with rice and ground pork with a tangy and spicy tomato

Chimney Cake („kürtös kalács”) – popular Hungarian sweet street snack

Lángos – deep-fried flat bread, eaten with garlic sauce, cheese, sour cream

Túró Rudi – chocolated curd cheese

Dobos Cake – made with thin layers of sponge cake, bittersweet chocolate buttercream, and a brittle caramel top layer

Beigli – Walnut/poppy seed roll, traditional Christmas cake

Pálinka – special fruit brandy.

What did we learn from our grandmothers? Have a headache? Drink pálinka. Feeling nervous? Drink pálinka.

The Hungarian National Assembly (the House of Parliament)

The Parliament building, a magnificent example of Neo-Gothic architecture, is just over 100 years old. It's the third largest Parliament building in the world and is also home to the Hungarian Crown Jewels.

Heroes' Square

Heroes' Square is the largest and most impressive square of the city. The Millennium Monument standing in the middle of the square was erected in 1896 to commemorate the 1000th anniversary of the Magyars' arrival to the Carpathian Basin. The Museum of Fine Arts is located on the northern side of the square.

Chain Bridge

The Chain Bridge was the first bridge to permanently connect Buda and Pest. At the time of its completion, Chain Bridge was considered to be one of the wonders of the world. Crossing the bridge is just a short walk, and no matter which direction you go, the view is beautiful.

Buda Castle Hill

The Castle Hill, which includes the Royal Palace, the Fishermen's Bastion and Matthias Church, is easily visible from everywhere in Budapest. Exploring beautiful buildings and cobblestone streets in the Castle District can take an entire day, but it is time well spent.

Margaret Island

Margaret Island now serves as a recreational park in the centre of the Danube River. It is a great place to walk, swim a few laps or go for a run. During summer months, bicycles are also available for rent. Since vehicles are prohibited, the island is a fantastic escape from the city's traffic.

Central Market Hall

The spectacular Central Market Hall is a good source of Hungarian products. You can also make it a pit-stop for a quick bite of traditional Hungarian food when touring the city. Shop with the locals for meat, cheese, fruits, vegetable, and pastries.

Public Transport

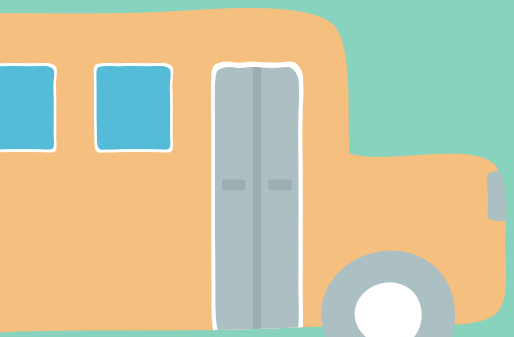

FROM THE AIRPORT

Budapest Airport is situated some 20 km to the south-east from the city centre. How to reach the city centre from Budapest International Airport?

BUS 100E

takes passengers to Deák tér from the Airport and back. The first bus leaves from the airport each morning at 5:00. More info: <https://bkk.hu/apps/docs/terkep/repter.pdf>
PLEASE NOTE! A special ticket must be purchased for bus 100E for HUF 1500 – other tickets or season tickets are not valid for this service. You can buy this ticket in the ticket vending machine at the Airport, or from the bus driver on the bus (only cash accepted).

BUS 200E

takes passengers to Kőbánya-Kispest metro (M3) terminal from the Airport and back. From the Kőbánya-Kispest metro terminal, passengers can take the M3 metro towards Újpest Központ to reach the city centre. Tickets for public transportation (such as bus 200E) priced 350 HUF are available at the Airport from BKK at its customer service points, from the post office, the newsagents (Relay) and from ticket machines at the bus stop. It is also possible to purchase a ticket from the bus driver for 450 HUF.

To plan your trip in the BUDAPEST GO application

METRO LINES

Metro services run from 4:30 until 23:30.

Budapest metro has four lines:

- M1 or the Yellow Line: between Vörösmarty tér and Mexikói út
- M2 or the Red Line: between Déli pályaudvar and Örs vezér tere
 - M3 or the Blue Line: between Újpest Központ and Kőbánya-Kispest* Please note this line is replaced by buses at some sections.
- M4 or the Green Line: between Kelenföld vasútállomás and Keleti pályaudvar

The Yellow Line is the oldest subway line in Hungary and also in mainland Europe. It was opened in 1896 for the Millennium celebrations. The newest line is the Green Line which was opened in 2014.

Budapest has more than 200 bus routes covering most inner city and suburban areas. Some routes offer an express service, indicated with an “E” following the bus number. On the main routes, services are available even during the night. Night buses usually start at midnight and run till 4:00 am every night. The numbering of night buses start with the number 9. Note that some night buses on very busy lines run quite often (every 10-15th minute), but lines running to the suburbs run only once or twice an hour.

www.bkk.hu/en

There are three public boat lines:
D-11: Kopaszi-gát (Rákóczi híd)-Újpest,
Árpád út

D-12 and D-13: Kopaszi-gát (Rákóczi-híd) – Rómaifürdő

One single ticket for public transport boat is HUF 750, but you can travel with your monthly Budapest pass free of charge on weekdays.

Bicycle-Sharing Network of BUBI

The Bubi bike-sharing scheme is a bicycle-sharing network in Budapest. The apple-green bikes can be hired from and returned to any docking station found at major transport hubs in the city centre. So far 1,150 bikes can be hired from 99 docking stations in the centre of Budapest. More information on the fares and the usage of the system: molbubi.hu/en
